Learn to see the "unseen" in your students and how these discoveries can aid in deepening their practice. Let go of your fear around "seeing" to experience the full essence of your students on any given day, in any given pose.

In this workshop, you will learn to:

Observe where and how the body holds common experiences such as tension, grief, anxiety and depression.

How to strengthen, clear, protect and direct your own energy as a healer.

Pinpoint which assists will provide students with the most healing, based on what you observe about them and their practice.

Everyone has the ability to "see," we need only learn how we see as individuals. With guidance, practice and trust, you will learn to discover what it means to truly "see" your students through your feelings, intuitions, thoughts, and/or visions.
