ANNOUNCEMENTS AND HEARING OF THE PUBLIC

Jordan Chavez stated that he is interested in running in the upcoming election to be the Student Trustee Nominee from CSM. Mr. Chavez said he had learned a lot from his time on student government, in which he currently serves as Secretary. Mr. Chavez asked members of the ICC to sign his petition to have his name appear on the ballot if they felt comfortable doing so.

REPORTS

Chair Paing reminded the clubs reminded the club representatives to consider running for the District Student Trustee Nominee from CSM. He also encouraged them to be on the lookout for information about running for next year's student government.

Vice Chair Graciarena informed the group that the ASCSM Programming Board would be hosting a St. Patrick's Day event on Monday, March 18. Clubs may volunteer at this event to earn service hours. Ms. Graciarena also noted that the campus' literary journal, The Labyrinth, and the upcoming Writers' Ruckus event are now accepting submissions.

Mr. Hamadeh stated that there will be no classes held on Friday, March 29, because it is a Flex Day. Mr. Hamadeh also stated that there will not be an ICC meeting on Wednesday, April 3, due to Spring Recess. He encouraged clubs to submit any proposals for events between now and the end of the semester as soon as possible. Finally, Mr. Hamadeh informed that the Council that ICC meeting days would most like change starting in the Fall 2019 semester due to scheduling conflicts. The Center for Student Life will inform all the clubs prior to the end of this semester so that plans for the fall may be made well ahead of time.

The CSM Democrats Club reported that the group will host a movie screening on Thursday, March 14, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. in Building 10, Room 195. The club will be showing the film Fahrenheit 11/9.

The CSM Filmmakers Club encouraged students to attend their meetings on Tuesdays from 3 pm to 4 pm in Building 14, Room 116.

The Transfer Club reported that information regarding the Southern California University Tour would be going out campus wide shortly.
