

COLLEGE OF SAN MATEO
College Council Meeting Summary
April 21, 2004

Meetings of the College Council are open to all members of the campus community

Council Members Present: Tania Beliz, Joyce Berghoff, Tom Diskin, Chris Eden, Patricia Griffin, Mike Habeeb, Tim Karas, Shirley Kelly, Mike Mitchell, Annette Perot, Grace Sonner, Martha Tilmann, Henry Villareal Members Absent: Candice Alfaro, Jason Heblack, Charles Lee.

Review of the Agenda

Postponed Item 6, ASCSM Flea Market to the May 5 meeting. Added an information item, "College Hour," with Henry Villareal leading the discussion.

Review of the Meeting Summary of April 7, 2004

No changes were made

Budget Subcommittee Report

Virgil Stanford reported there has been no recent news from the State or new direction from the district regarding budget reductions. Jim Keller attended the meeting and spoke about some of the unknown factors. More information will be known when the May revise is presented. The committee will begin to prepare for possible cuts which will likely be limited to hourly salaries. The next meeting will be May 10.

Goals and Action Steps, 2003-04 Wrap-Up

Council reviewed the progress made toward the action steps for College Goals since February 18, 2004. Nearly all of the action steps have either been completed or have on-going status. Those that are on-going are included as continuing action steps for 2004-05. Results of this review will be posted on CSM Internal.

College Hour

Henry Villareal raised the idea of reviving College Hour and the impact it would have on students and the campus. Council discussed pros and cons of College Hour and agreed to discuss the idea with each constituent group, obtain feedback and report back to Council in the fall.

Announcements

- The Daily News recently published an article about the new computer forensics program.
-  The Redwood Symphony would be performing a children's program at CSM on April 24.
-  The Associated Students' Spring Fling will be held the week of April 26.
-  A group from the Student Senate will attend the CalSACC Spring Conference next week.

Submitted by Valerie Anderson