Required Textbook: THE SPEAKER'S HANDBOOK,
10th Edition, 2013, by Sprague, Stuart and Bodary

Course Description: This course is designed to provide you with basic theories and skills that are essential to effective public speaking. Topics include audience analysis, organization of ideas, persuasive/informative speaking, credibility, and extemporaneous delivery. Ideally, you should be able to apply these skills in a variety of public speaking situations whether in future college courses or non-academic settings. As a member of the class you will also become an active listener and learn to analyze, critique, and evaluate the speaking of others. (AA: Area E2b+E2c or E5d, CSU: Area A1, UC: Area 1C)

Recommended Preparation: Eligibility for English 100 (Writing Development)

Student Learning Outcomes (SLO's)

1. Write coherent speech outlines that demonstrate their ability to use organizational formats with a clear specific purpose.
2. Incorporate research, sound reasoning and evidence that support claims they make in their presentations of speeches and outlines.
3. Demonstrate that they are careful and critical thinkers both as speakers and listeners.
4. Adapt their presentations to the audience based on situational, demographics and psychological audience analysis.
5. Explain their relationship and ethical responsibilities to others in the communication transaction.
6. Explain the basic principles of communication, and apply selected theories of rhetoric and/or communication.

Communication Studies Lab Requirement:

Public Speaking, Communication Studies Department, Comm. 110 has a 1.0 hour per week (To Be Arranged) requirement that you must fulfill as part of your enrollment in this course. These TBA hours are not homework but are instructional activities designed to augment the lecture portion of the course. You are required to complete the activities shown below in the Communication Studies Resource Center (COMMLAB), and you must document that you have attended the COMMLAB for at least 50 minutes no later than Friday, September 2. Be sure to log in and out of the Accudemia system every time you work on one of the activities in the COMMLAB. The TBA requirement must be completed for the number of hours per week indicated in the Schedule of Classes through video recording rehearsals of your speeches or presentations, viewing in-class recordings of your speeches, consulting with lab faculty, doing research, completing modules, or collaborating with classmates on assignments.

Grading Policy: Standard grading will be used for all graded speeches, midterms, and final exam. There will be two (2) separate grades given for each speech—one for delivery and the other for the written outline.

A = 90%	B = 80%	C = 70%	D = 60%
B+ = 85%	C+ = 75%	D+ = 65%	below 60% is failing

Attendance:

Students are expected to attend all class meetings and participate in class activities. Per college policy, students are allowed 2 absences without penalty of being dropped. (There is no such thing as an “excused” absence.)

In terms of tardiness, three (3) lates equal one absence.

Disability Policy Statement:

If you have a documented disability and need accommodations for this class, please see me as soon as possible or contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC) for assistance. The DRC is located in Bldg. 10 (first floor). (650) 574-6438; TTY (650) 574-6230.

Plagiarism Policy Statement:

Dishonesty such as cheating, plagiarism, or knowingly furnishing false information to the College and its officials is prohibited and may lead to appropriate disciplinary action.

Electronic Devices:

I do not allow use of electronic devices in class (e.g., cell phones, laptops, tablets, etc.). Please put them away. (If you have an emergency, please let me know).
