

(BASIC OUTLINE)
FIRST + SPEECH ONLY

Student Name: Kay Celles
Speech Type: Entertainment

Entertainment Speech: Moving to San Francisco

Organization Type: Topical Order
Attention Getter Type: Questions
Conclusion Type: Summary

Goal/Purpose: Entertainment

Introduction

- I. Have you moved to a different place by yourself? How did you feel? Were you scared? Were you nervous? Were you excited? For me the feelings of starting over new and exploring a new area are quite exciting. This is exactly how I felt when I first moved to the Bay Area from Southern California where I attended school.
- II. One of the most life-changing experiences was when I moved to the Bay Area.

Thesis Statement

The specific purpose of my speech is to share with you why moving to the Bay Area was one of the most life-changing experiences I've had.

Body

- I. I learned the importance of having a support system.
  - A. When I first got accepted into a pre-health program at SFSU, the only thing I could think about is the excitement of moving to a new place. I did not realize how lonely it would be to live here by myself. The rough transition of balancing school, work, and adjusting to a new city became stressful and not having anyone to confide in or to simply keep me company was quite depressing.

  - B. Through the initial rough transition, my mom was there to help me. I developed a better relationship with her as I called her weekly. My close friends from Southern California were also there for me as we texted daily. They continue to become a distant support system while I build one on my own here.

Transition: My second main point:

- II. I was given the opportunity to expand my leadership skills.
  - A. My position as a health coach chair at a free clinic gave me the opportunity to oversee, organize, train, and evaluate new volunteers. Being a chairperson challenged me because I had the responsibility of training 20 new volunteers and making sure they were ready for clinic day.

B. Now on my second year at the clinic, I am part of the board of directors that guide the clinic. My roles as one of the public health directors include running a committee and making executive decisions. Reflecting back on these two years, it definitely challenged me, but also at the same time, it also helped me expand my leadership skills.

Transition: In conclusion:

Conclusion

- I. The specific purpose of my talk was to share with you all why moving to the Bay Area was a life-changing experience for me.
  - A. It helped me learn the importance of a support system
  - B. It gave me the opportunity to develop my leadership skills even further.
- II. I might have not gotten these opportunities if I did not move here. Thank you for listening.
