CHANGES TO COMMITTEE STRUCTURE 2012-13 TO 2013-14: In Fall 2012, of the Institutional Planning Committees, Enrollment Management Committee (EMC) and the Human Resources Committee (HRC) were suspended. For Spring 2013, EMC was reconfigured to address student success as two focused task forces—the Math Task Force and the Student Engagement Task Force. The Technology Committee has been combined with the Distance Education Committee to become the Distance Education Committee and Educational Technology Committee (DEETC) with a new mission. In Fall 2013, IPC officially became the Institutional Planning and Budget Committee (IPBC), assuming the oversight duties of the Budget Planning Committee (BPC), which is also suspended. College Council is also currently in the process of defining a new role and mission for the committee. Other currently suspended committees include Art on Campus and Trustees' Program Improvement Fund.

INSTITUTIONAL PLANNING COMMITTEES

Homepage for Institutional Planning Committees: <http://www.collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees>

Institutional Planning and Budget Committee (IPBC) (Formerly Institutional Planning Committee (IPBC))
<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees/ipc.asp>

Note: In Fall 2013, IPC officially adopted the budget oversight responsibilities of the Budget Planning Committee, which has been suspended and became the Institutional Planning and Budget Committee; the purpose statement will be modified in early Fall 2013 to reflect these changes.

Purpose: The mission of the Institutional Planning Committee is to ensure the implementation and ongoing assessment of the institutional planning process.

The Institutional Planning Committee accomplishes its mission by doing the following:

- Developing institutional priorities based on the SMCCCD Strategic Plan and the CSM Educational Master Plan;
- Coordinating with the Budget Planning Committee to ensure that budget allocations are based on institutional planning priorities and are relevant to the current fiscal environment;
- Establishing measurable indicators for institutional priorities based on recommendations from the Office of Planning, Research, and Institutional Effectiveness (PRIE), establishing targets for those indicators, and monitoring progress in meeting those targets;
- Recommending institutional priorities to College Council;
- Ensuring the integration of the planning process, including, but not limited to, a coordinated, institutional approach in addressing college priorities and the interrelationship among institutional plans;
- Establishing regular communication with the campus community regarding the institutional planning process; and
- Assessing on an annual basis the effectiveness of the Institutional Planning Committee and the institutional planning process.

Distance Education and Educational Technology Committee (DEETC)

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees/deetc.asp>

Note: In 2012-2013, the Technology Committee was suspended and the Distance Education Committee became the Distance Education and Educational Technology Committee (DEETC). It was formed to assume responsibilities for both distance education and for technology planning as it pertains to the college.

Purpose: The CSM Distance Education and Educational Technology Committee facilitates the development of distance learning instruction in response to student and community needs, and the latest developments and standards in Educational Technology. The committee is committed to supporting faculty and students in obtaining training in the use of appropriate technology for teaching and learning, both in the classroom and online. The committee evaluates current and emerging resources and educational technology used to instruct, support, and educate CSM Distance Education and on-campus students to determine what changes or improvements need to be made to meet the needs of our faculty and students, and makes recommendations based on these evaluations.

The Distance Education and Educational Technology Committee accomplishes its mission by doing the following:

- Helping shape a college vision of distance education;
- Providing direction for integrating educational technology into all on-campus and distance education courses and programs;
- Guiding departments, faculty and staff towards an efficient, effective, and consistent use of educational technology
- Recommending policies for quality and academic rigor of all distance education classes;
- Encouraging faculty to participate in and make recommendations on the development of courses, course materials, and the use of appropriate educational technology;
- Helping guide student accessibility and promote distance education courses as a viable option for pursuing educational goals;
- Developing procedures, in consultation with the Vice President of Instruction, reflective of the specifications of Title V, the ACCJC and Department of Education guidelines for educational technology and online instruction.
- Making recommendations to provide centralized online access to all student support services and resources - library, counseling, financial aid.
- Making recommendations to provide online support for students, such as creating an online readiness course for students struggling to use educational technology.

Diversity In Action Group (DIAG)

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees/diag.asp>

Purpose: The mission of the Diversity in Action Group is to ensure that unity through diversity is among College of San Mateo’s highest priorities. DIAG assures that the college’s operational decisions—from the executive to the unit level—support its commitment to diversity and student success.

The Diversity In Action Group accomplishes its mission by doing the following:

- Developing, implementing, and evaluating strategies to increase diversity in the composition of the student body, classified staff, faculty, and administration;
- Using the Student Equity Report as a framework to assess annually the academic success rates of students;
- Consulting as needed with the Basic Skills Committee to assess program activities addressing student success;
- Consulting with PRIE to identify and retrieve pertinent data related to student success;
- Coordinating and sponsoring programs that inform and educate the CSM community about diversity and related issues;
- Benchmarking and monitoring institutional decisions and actions that relate to diversity; and
- Assessing the effectiveness of the Diversity In Action Group by producing an annual report of its activities.

ACADEMIC SENATE COMMITTEES

College of San Mateo Academic Senate

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/academicsenate/>

Purpose: The Academic Senate has been established in accordance with Education Code Section 70902(b)(7), which calls on the Board of Governors to enact regulations to ensure the right of faculty, as well as staff and students, to participate effectively in District and college governance. It further ensures the right of Academic Senates to assume primary responsibility for "making recommendations in the areas of curriculum and academic standards."

The Academic Senate Governing Council is the voice of the faculty on matters related to curriculum and instruction. We work collaboratively with college administration, staff, and students to promote academic excellence.

The Governing Council shall make recommendations regarding academic and professional matters to the District Academic Senate, the College and District administration, the Board of Trustees, and other appropriate individuals and bodies.

Academic and professional matters as defined in Title 5, Section 53200, include the following policy development matters:

1. Curriculum, including establishing prerequisites and placing courses within disciplines
2. Degree and certificate requirements
3. Grading policies
4. Educational program development
5. Standards or policies regarding student preparation and success
6. College governance structures, as related to faculty roles
7. Faculty roles and involvement in accreditation processes, including self-study and annual reports
8. Policies for faculty professional development activities
9. Processes for program review
10. Processes for instructional planning and budget development
11. Other academic and professional matters as mutually agreed upon between the governing board and the Academic Senate.

Officers of the Academic Senate elected to serve during 2012-2013:

David Laderman	President, Academic Senate	Lee Ryan Miller	Secretary

Trustees' Program Improvement Fund

Note: Currently the Trustees' Program Improvement Fund has been suspended by the Board of Trustees. CSM has created an Innovative Grants program to help address the need.

Purpose: The overall goal is to support the sustained effort of improving the educational programs and services of the SMCCCD. Funds projects with specific and applicable outcomes to enrich student learning and improve student services and are beyond the normal professional duties and responsibilities of full- and part-time faculty specified in the collective bargaining agents of the SMCCCD.
