Institutional Planning Committee (IPC) (Formerly Institutional Planning and Budget Committee (IPBC))

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees/ipc.asp>

Note: In Fall 2013, IPC officially adopted the budget oversight responsibilities of the Budget Planning Committee, which has been suspended and became the Institutional Planning and Budget Committee; the purpose statement will be modified in early Fall 2014 to reflect these changes as well as IPC's new role in relation to participatory governance.

Purpose: The mission of the Institutional Planning Committee is to ensure the implementation and ongoing assessment of the institutional planning process.

The Institutional Planning Committee accomplishes its mission by doing the following:

- Developing institutional priorities based on the SMCCCD Strategic Plan and the CSM Educational Master Plan;
- Coordinating with the Budget Planning Committee to ensure that budget allocations are based on institutional planning priorities and are relevant to the current fiscal environment;
- Establishing measurable indicators for institutional priorities based on recommendations from the Office of Planning, Research, and Institutional Effectiveness (PRIE), establishing targets for those indicators, and monitoring progress in meeting those targets;
- Recommending institutional priorities to College Council;
- Ensuring the integration of the planning process, including, but not limited to, a coordinated, institutional approach in addressing college priorities and the interrelationship among institutional plans;
- Establishing regular communication with the campus community regarding the institutional planning process; and
- Assessing on an annual basis the effectiveness of the Institutional Planning Committee and the institutional planning process.

Basic Skills Initiative (BSI)

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/bsi/>

Purpose: The Basic Skills Initiative (BSI) Committee participates in a collaborative statewide effort to address the needs of Basic Skills/ESL community college students who are academically under-prepared. BSI is intended to facilitate basic skills education and to provide extended professional enrichment opportunities to faculty, classified staff, and administrators.

Its mission is to assist College of San Mateo in providing comprehensive instructional support and student and faculty services, integrated throughout the institution. These services are intentionally designed to nurture the success of Basic Skills/ESL students.

Distance Education and Educational Technology Committee (DEETC)

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees/deetc.asp>

Note: In 2012-2013, the Technology Committee was suspended and the Distance Education Committee became the Distance Education and Educational Technology Committee (DEETC). It was formed to assume responsibilities for both distance education and for technology planning as it pertains to the college.

Purpose: The CSM Distance Education and Educational Technology Committee facilitates the development of distance learning instruction in response to student and community needs, and the latest developments and standards in Educational Technology. The committee is committed to supporting faculty and students in obtaining training in the use of appropriate technology for teaching and learning, both in the classroom and online. The committee evaluates current and emerging resources and educational technology used to instruct, support, and educate CSM Distance Education and on-campus students to determine what changes or improvements need to be made to meet the needs of our faculty and students, and makes recommendations based on these evaluations.

The Distance Education and Educational Technology Committee accomplishes its mission by doing the following:

- Helping shape a college vision of distance education;
- Providing direction for integrating educational technology into all on-campus and distance education courses and programs;
- Guiding departments, faculty and staff towards an efficient, effective, and consistent use of educational technology
- Recommending policies for quality and academic rigor of all distance education classes;
- Encouraging faculty to participate in and make recommendations on the development of courses, course materials, and the use of appropriate educational technology;
- Helping guide student accessibility and promote distance education courses as a viable option for pursuing educational goals;
- Developing procedures, in consultation with the Vice President of Instruction, reflective of the specifications of Title V, the ACCJC and Department of Education guidelines for educational technology and online instruction.
- Making recommendations to provide centralized online access to all student support services and resources - library, counseling, financial aid.
- Making recommendations to provide online support for students, such as creating an online readiness course for students struggling to use educational technology.

Diversity In Action Group (DIAG)

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees/diag.asp>

Purpose: The mission of the Diversity in Action Group is to ensure that unity through diversity is among College of San Mateo’s highest priorities. DIAG assures that the college’s operational decisions—from the executive to the unit level—support its commitment to diversity and student success.

The Diversity In Action Group accomplishes its mission by doing the following:

- Developing, implementing, and evaluating strategies to increase diversity in the composition of the student body, classified staff, faculty, and administration;
- Using the Student Equity Report as a framework to assess annually the academic success rates of students;
- Consulting as needed with the Basic Skills Committee to assess program activities addressing student success;
- Consulting with PRIE to identify and retrieve pertinent data related to student success;
- Coordinating and sponsoring programs that inform and educate the CSM community about diversity and related issues;
- Benchmarking and monitoring institutional decisions and actions that relate to diversity; and
- Assessing the effectiveness of the Diversity In Action Group by producing an annual report of its activities.

ACADEMIC SENATE COMMITTEESCollege of San Mateo Academic Senate

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/academicsenate/>

Purpose: The Academic Senate has been established in accordance with Education Code Section 70902(b)(7), which calls on the Board of Governors to enact regulations to ensure the right of faculty, as well as staff and students, to participate effectively in District and college governance. It further ensures the right of Academic Senates to assume primary responsibility for “making recommendations in the areas of curriculum and academic standards.”

The Academic Senate Governing Council is the voice of the faculty on matters related to curriculum and instruction. We work collaboratively with college administration, staff, and students to promote academic excellence.

The Governing Council shall make recommendations regarding academic and professional matters to the District Academic Senate, the College and District administration, the Board of Trustees, and other appropriate individuals and bodies.

Academic and professional matters as defined in Title 5, Section 53200, include the following policy development matters:

1. Curriculum, including establishing prerequisites and placing courses within disciplines
2. Degree and certificate requirements
3. Grading policies
4. Educational program development
5. Standards or policies regarding student preparation and success
6. College governance structures, as related to faculty roles
7. Faculty roles and involvement in accreditation processes, including self-study and annual reports
8. Policies for faculty professional development activities
9. Processes for program review
10. Processes for instructional planning and budget development
11. Other academic and professional matters as mutually agreed upon between the governing board and the Academic Senate.

Officers of the Academic Senate elected to serve during 2012-2013:

David Laderman	President, Academic Senate	Vincent Li	Secretary
Kathleen Sammut	Vice President	Rosemary Nurre	Treasurer

Center for Academic Excellence (CAE)

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/cae/caecommittee.asp>

Purpose: The Center for Academic Excellence Committee shall report and recommend to Council and advise the Dean of Academic Support and Learning Technologies regarding professional development activities. The primary focus and purview of the committee shall be faculty professional development and pedagogy, but the committee shall also oversee and facilitate professional development for staff, and other college employees. The CAEC may establish committees as needed on other professional development matters, as it deems necessary. All responsibilities of the CAEC shall be carried out in accordance with applicable State laws.

Art on Campus Committee (AOC)

http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees/Committee_Archive.asp

Purpose: Reports to the college president.

Budget Planning Committee (BPC) Note: In Fall 2013, the Integrated Planning Committee assumed the oversight responsibilities of BPC.

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees/bpc.asp>

Purpose: The mission of the Budget Planning Committee is to ensure that the college maintains fiscal stability and that financial resources are allocated in accordance with agreed upon college priorities established by the Institutional Planning Committee.

The Budget Planning Committee accomplishes its mission by doing the following:

- Developing long-term and short-term financial plans that are aligned with the college's Strategic Plan and the Educational Master Plan;
- Recommending an annual operating budget to the Institutional Planning Committee;
- Monitoring the college's operating budget on a quarterly basis and recommending corrective actions if necessary;
- Ensuring that both long-term and short-term budget activities are integrated into the college's Institutional Planning Calendar;
- Making recommendations to the Institutional Planning Committee with respect to funding available for staffing levels of faculty, classified staff, and administrators in conjunction with the Human Resources Committee per fiscal year;
- Establishing regular communications with the campus community regarding college budget matters; and
- Assessing on an annual basis the effectiveness of the Budget Planning Committee.

Human Resources Committee (HRC)

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees/hr.asp>

Purpose: The mission of the Human Resources Committee is to ensure that the college has provided sufficient personnel in all employee classifications to carry out the college mission and to support student learning in accordance with the college's Educational Master Plan and the goals in the Strategic Plan.

The Human Resources Committee accomplishes its mission by doing the following:

- Developing a long-term human resources plan that is aligned with the Strategic Plan's long-term goals of the college and the District;
- Developing an annual assessment of the college's human resources needs in light of retirements and separations, and anticipated areas of problem growth or decline;
- Developing an annual forecast of employee retirements and separations and using the results of the forecast to assist the Budget Planning Committee in planning efforts;
- Periodically assessing the college's classified staffing structure, instructional staffing structure, and administrative structure to ensure that these structures are aligned with current and future college needs;
- Consulting, as needed, with the Budget Planning Committee to identify human resources impact within the Program Improvement and Viability (PIV) process;
- Consulting, as needed, with the Academic Senate, CSEA, Management Council, the Technology Committee, and the Diversity in Action Group to assess institution-level professional development needs in accordance with the college's Educational Master Plan;
- Making recommendations to the Institutional Planning Committee with respect to human resource needs; and
- Periodically assessing the effectiveness of the Human Resources Committee.

Technology Committee (TAC)

Note: Technology Committee (TAC) has been combined with the Distance Education Committee to become the Distance Education and Educational Technology Committee.

<http://collegeofsanmateo.edu/institutionalcommittees/tac.asp>

Purpose: The mission of the Technology Committee is to ensure that the college provides and maintains adequate technological resources to support student learning in accordance with the college's Strategic Plan, Institutional Priorities, and annual College Goals.

The Technology Committee accomplishes its mission by doing the following:

- Developing a long-term technology plan that is aligned with the long-term goals of the college and the District;

- Developing an annual assessment of the college’s future technological needs in light of advances in technological capabilities and technological needs created by new pedagogical approaches;
- Working with the Budget Planning Committee to create and to finance a Total Cost of Ownership model, which includes identifying funding sources for the replacement of outdated technology;
- Working with ITS staff to set and maintain minimum technological standards;
- Working with the Human Resources Committee to determine professional development needs with respect to the use of technology;
- Working with the Distance Education Committee to ensure that adequate technological resources exist to support the college’s distance education and other technology-mediated efforts;
- Ensuring that both long-term and short-term technology planning is integrated into institutional planning at all levels;
- Participating in the creation of policies concerning appropriate use of technological resources at both a college and District level; and
- Making recommendations to the Institutional Planning Committee with respect to technological needs.
