

Instructional Program Review: Spring 2013 Cycle Core Program and Student Success Indicators

How Data Sets are Organized by Program

Data sets provided as Core Program and Student Success Indicators are organized into the program categories listed below, as found on the CSM Program Review website.¹

Complete hard copies of the Program Review data set include data for programs that are no longer current.

Note about Instructional Department and Division Organization:

For the Spring 2013 program review cycle, PRIE provides program review data that spans academic years 2009-10, 2010-11, and 2011-12. Therefore, the data reflect the departmental and division-level instructional organization, as the organization existed during this period. A new instructional organization was adopted for 2011/12.
