CELEBRATING CSM in Your Community

Approximately 90 percent of firefighters in the County received training from CSM

In 1962, the same year the College Heights campus opened, CSM's Fire Service Program was established. In the past 50 years, the program, now referred to as Fire Technology, has gone through an evolution—from offering rudimentary classes in fire prevention and firefighting tactics to today's rigorous classroom instruction and hands-on training using the latest emergency and firefighting technology. Firefighters in 2013 are challenged with more complex emergency situations than those of their predecessors of the past decades, and, CSM's program is at the forefront in preparing future firefighters to protect our communities.

Keith Marshall, the coordinator of CSM's Fire Technology Program, describes how the program has changed over the decades, "Back in the 1960s, the program's focus was to train working fire personnel during their 'off duty' time in skills they didn't have upon entering the fire service. This was a major departure from the program today which trains students prior to beginning their fire service careers. Consequently, CSM's Fire Technology Program provides the County's fire departments with a more diverse and higher educated pool of candidates.

CSM is home to one of 30 firefighter academies in California providing training for prospective firefighters in a much more cost effective way than cities, counties and special

Student Success Story: Miya Oto

Outstanding Student, All-American Athlete

CSM student Miya Oto is a force of nature—and a very hard worker. She's a three-time All-American swimmer, All-American water polo player and 2012's Most Outstanding Female Swimmer of the Coast Conference. Last summer, she was part of a relay team that crossed the famed English Channel; she swam the 62-mile roundtrip in 24 hours. Not to be overshadowed by her athletic achievements, Miya is also an excellent student.

Upon graduating from Aragon High School, Miya attended a state university for a semester, and although she described it as a "great experience," she says, "I wanted my college education to be about more than just earning college units." Looking for a change, she was drawn to CSM after being recruited by Coach Randy Wright to join the swimming and water polo teams. "Going to CSM has been a good move because I've been able to enjoy multiple sports while completing my general education classes that are accepted to 4-year colleges and universities.

Miya found differences between a large university and CSM. "CSM offered more individual attention, which helped me to achieve good grades and make the dean's list every semester. It was much easier to get the required classes that I needed for transfer." She adds, "The professors at CSM are very approachable and I found it easy to reach out to them when I had questions. Another difference is that CSM's counseling has been very helpful in keeping me on track for transfer and I never had to wait very long to get an appointment with my counselor. In addition to the academics and support services, CSM's campus is a beautiful environment to be in."

Her experience at CSM through athletics has taught Miya that hard work pays off. Not only did she see results in swimming, but she also realized that the results will be there in anything that she applies her time and effort to. Coach Wright explains Miya's successful work ethic, "Hard work, dedication and commitment to oneself and to a team is an invaluable life lesson. Miya has demonstrated that greatness is not achieved with given talents but through one's work ethic. In swim, she is fast but she also trains harder than most. You can't realize greatness; you must work to achieve greatness."

The guidance and leadership that Miya received from Coach Wright has been instrumental in her success. She describes her coach as "a very skilled instructor and a great motivator... he has made my experience at CSM an enjoyable and unforgettable one. I am so glad that I chose to attend CSM." She adds, "Being a student athlete at the college has opened many doors for transferring to numerous universities."

Miya has applied to several UC campuses and state universities for fall 2013. She will decide which university to attend once she receives all of her acceptance letters. As for her sport, Miya plans to continue U.S. Masters Swimming and open water swimming. Whatever path her education or athletics will take, there is no doubt that Miya will continue to work hard, be dedicated and remain committed to achieving success.

Honors Project Inspires Inquiring Minds

If you...

- ~ Placed in ENGL 838 or 848
- ~ Are Motivated to Transfer to a University
- ~ Are Interested in Latino literature and issues

...then the Puente Project is for you!

Puente Project is a year-long, UC-sponsored, transfer program that spans fall 2013 and spring 2014 and includes linked English and counseling classes and mentoring as well as out-of-class field trips and activities.

Interested students must attend a mandatory Puente Project Orientation. Contact CSM Puente coordinators for details:

"Imagine walking into a classroom that is not at all like a traditional classroom. Seats are arranged in a roundtable-type setting where we face each other as we discuss intellectual ideas and perspectives. We learn through exploration and the guidance of our professors. In our seminars, our professors are facilitators but we shape the conversation." CSM student Katya Grishina is describing the setting of the Honors Project, which she explains, "...is not like your standard college classes. It's very similar to graduate seminars offered at universities—but held at a community college."

Launched in fall 2012, CSM's Honors Project develops the abilities of high achieving students as they work together with faculty and other students to create a rich and stimulating educational experience. According to Professor Tim Maxwell, the coordinator of the Honors Project, "The students participating in the project are motivated, engaged and inquisitive. The project provides the means for students to be intellectually challenged and inspired."

While traditional honors programs are centered on a series of classes, CSM's Honors Project is seminarbased in language arts, social science, math and science. "Through seminars, the project serves as a lens for students to make connections between their own interests and course content and to develop an idea into a focused research project," says Maxwell.

Early in the semester, students are introduced to a broad theme as the focus for their seminar readings and discussions. One of the spring 2013 topics, "Media and the Other" examined stereotypes across social and electronic media as well as traditional media such as print, film, and television. David Laderman, CSM professor of film and a seminar instructor, says, "The seminar is a very comfortable setting where students support each other and

Message from the President

Welcome to the fall 2013 semester. I would like to take this opportunity to mention that CSM has recently updated its Mission Statement and Institutional Priorities, which together, provide a "blueprint" for the college over the next several years. Listed among the priorities are: Improving Student Success; Promoting Academic Excellence; and Promoting High-Quality Programs. The stories that we have included in this schedule reflect those priorities of success, excellence and quality.

Beginning with this schedule we are introducing two new features—one highlighting members of our faculty and the other showcasing contributions that CSM programs make to our community. In this edition, you can read an interview with Laura Demsetz, professor of engineering and computer science, who came to CSM after teaching for 10 years at UC Berkeley. Professor Demsetz talks about why she chose to teach at a community college and her passion for teaching and her students. Then, in the "CSM In Your Community" article, you can learn about the important role that our Fire Technology Program plays in protecting the communities in which we live.

In addition, I invite you to read about CSM's new Honors Project, developed and led by three outstanding professors. The Honors Project is providing students with a rich and challenging educational experience—based on inquiry and research-that is on par with honors programs at prestigious universities.

Finally, this issue's student success story showcases Aragon High School graduate Miya Oto, CSM's All-American swimmer and water polo player who is also making an impression in the classroom. Read about how this accomplished young woman found success when she transferred from a major university to CSM.

In addition to these stories, I hope that you take a look at the selection of classes that we are offering this fall and consider enrolling at CSM. Perhaps you will become one of our future success stories.

CSM Professor Laura Demsetz: Invested in Student Success

After ten years on the civil engineering faculty at UC Berkeley, Laura Demsetz decided to pursue a teaching position at a community college. In 1999, she was hired as a member of CSM's engineering and computer information science faculty. In addition to her teaching, Professor Demsetz serves as an academic advisor to sciencerelated majors, faculty co-chair for the accreditation self-evaluation process, and is a former member and chair of CSM's Committee on Instruction. Professor Demsetz holds a Ph.D. and M.S. from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and a B.S. from UC Berkeley. In the following interview, she shares her experiences as a community college professor and her passion for her students.

You obviously could still be teaching at the university level. Why did you decide to spend the second part of your career at CSM?

During my years at UC Berkeley, I realized that I really enjoy teaching and advising students. Although I looked into teaching in the CSU system and private universities, I found that CSM offered exactly what I wanted: the opportunity to interact more directly with students, both in the classroom and as an advisor, the ability to see the progress my students were making, and a chance to be more involved in decisions that affect the institution.

How do you translate your university teaching experience into helping CSM students?

Because I'm familiar with the upper division curriculum that our students will experience when they transfer, I can help to prepare them for what will be expected of them in university classes. In my advising role, I make sure that students are taking the coursework that will prepare them to be competitive at the next level.

How do you inspire your students?

I'm enthusiastic about engineering and I hope that some of that rubs off on the students. The work that engineers do can have an impact on health and safety, so I try to emphasize the importance not only of learning but of understanding what you know and what you don't know – and of asking questions when you don't know something. I also encourage my students to maintain perspective. Sometimes life is such that they need to slow down or take a break to focus on other parts of their lives and then return to their studies.

What do you find most rewarding about teaching at a community college?

Seeing my students move on and take the next steps in their education. For most of them, that means transferring to a university, going to grad school or working in an engineering-related career.

"Professor Demsetz is one of the most dedicated instructors I have ever worked with. She pushes her students to their limits while also putting in the time and effort to help them get there. College of San Mateo is fortunate to have someone so enthusiastic about engineering and education."

What is the most positive aspect of teaching at CSM?

I think it's the role that the college fills in the community. We serve a broad and diverse group of students who come to CSM with all levels of preparation and ability. Every year, we have students who are on par with the best students at UC Berkeley and others who need direction and support to learn how to be successful in college. We see many high school students who come to us to get ahead and others who come to us to catch up. We give nontraditional students, some of whom have degrees in other fields, the chance to change their focus and restart their lives through education. The range of experiences our students bring provides opportunities for them to learn from one another. All of this adds richness to the learning process.

You are very involved in the life of the college beyond the classroom. Can described how those roles have impacted your teaching?

Being an academic advisor has helped me to be a better teacher because it has allowed me to see how the other parts of the college – the various student services – work to support our students. By serving as a member and then chair of the Committee on Instruction, I developed a more comprehensive understanding of CSM's programs; this makes me a better resource for my students. Through my current involvement in the accreditation process, I've learned more about the overall operation of the college and district. This helps me to anticipate changes that may impact the engineering program and its students. Lincoln-Shaun Sanders, B.S., Physics, UC Berkeley Enrolled in Demsetz's classes to prepare for graduate school

Do you have a defining CSM experience to share?

Since I live near the college, I see our students everywhere I go in the community. Usually they are working—and working hard—while they're going to school. This is a reminder that many of our students need support of some kind. Not all students have the luxury of attending a university right out of high school.

An indication of the impact that the college has on the community is the willingness of former students to share their experiences. I've had students serve as guest speakers or judges for student competitions. They offer their time because they received something important from the college and they in turn want to contribute.

What are your future goals at CSM and beyond?

I'd like to combine traditional forms of instruction, newly available online teaching resources, and handson experience to give students a variety of ways to learn. Education isn't a "one-size-fits-all" proposition. Different approaches work well for different students and different subjects. The challenge will be to make it easy for students to have access to the approaches that meet their needs.

Any additional comments about your experiences at CSM?

Our students are awesome! Our faculty and staff are talented, hard-working, and dedicated to supporting our students.

Honors Project (continued from front cover)

provide peer feedback. Students bring their work to the table, share experiences, backgrounds and knowledge"

grounds and knowledge."

As the semester progresses, the research project becomes the focus of the seminar. The project is completely student driven – students select one of their transfer courses to pair with their seminar theme; they formulate an idea and develop their project. Once the projects are underway, the seminars are transformed into workshops for students to prepare their research projects. A distinctive feature of the project is collaboration—among students and between students and their faculty advisors—which occurs much more so than in traditional classes. Laderman explains, "Through the Honors Project, we are providing students with a great training ground for transfer, upper division work and graduate school."

Student research projects integrate different fields of study and represent diverse topics. Examples from fall 2012 projects include, "The Social Paradox of Technology," "Kashmir in Need: An Analysis of Human Rights Abuses and Failed Negotiations," and "The Story of Stone: Women in the Qing dynasty and Happiness."

According to Professor Mohsen Janatpour, a seminar instructor in the sciences, "The research papers that these students produced were very high caliber and on par with the senior research project papers produced at the university level. Most importantly, the level of camaraderie and cooperation among the students was incredible. They encouraged, criticized, pushed, and helped each other to improve their research and reach a level scholarship worthy of any prestigious university's honors program."

At the end of the semester, students share their projects with the college community and others at a reception celebrating their work. Honors student Jenoah Timko provides the following perspective, "The end results (of the research) were so rewarding! Seeing my classmates' final research projects come to fruition and reading their essays as well as having the privilege of presenting my own essay in front of friends, family, and academic advisors was an experience I will never forget. This is an excellent program for students who are looking for a more autonomous and self-directed learning experience or who enjoy learning from their classmates in a student-driven forum." Students also gain experience in presenting their research at CSM's Honors Conference, and they are encouraged to apply to the Bay Area Honors Symposium to further showcase their work at either UC Berkeley or Stanford University. Four CSM honors students will be presenting their work at Honors Symposium at Stanford later this year.

Professor David Laderman (left) with an Honors Project student

See "Honors Project" on page 22

Who May Attend CSM

Any person who is a high school graduate, or who has passed the California High School Proficiency Examination or the General Education Development Examination (GED), or who is 18 years of age or older is eligible to attend this public community college. See page 5 for enrollment steps.

High school students may be admitted for concurrent enrollment with the permission of the dean of enrollment services. See College Connection Concurrent Enrollment Program on this page for details.

Open Enrollment

Every course offered at College of San Mateo (unless specifically exempted by legal statute) is open for enrollment and participation by any person who has been admitted to the College and who meets the prerequisites of the course provided that space is available.

Residency

Students who have been California residents (as defined in the Education Code) for more than one year prior to the beginning of any semester are eligible to enroll as residents for that semester. Nonresident students are those U.S. citizens who have not been residents of California (as defined in the Education Code) continuously for one year prior to the start of the semester. They are required to pay a tuition fee of $208 per unit at the time of registration, in addition to other required fees paid by California residents. Students may be required to present documentary evidence of eligibility for classification as residents. See page 21 for Fees.

Students need not be U.S. citizens to be classified as residents. Permanent resident aliens and many other citizens of other countries are eligible to establish California residency.

Getting Started at CSM

Continuing Students Priority Registration

Priority registration gives specific groups of students the opportunity to register for classes early. Generally, groups are given priority based on maintaining current Student Educational Plans (SEPs), completing the matriculation process, and earning a total number of units with the district. See Fall 2013 Important Dates on page 2 for a breakdown of the priority registration days, dates and the groups included for each day.

A student is considered a continuing student with priority registration if the student enrolled in the Spring 2013 semester in at least one class and is either still enrolled; or dropped the class after the class session had started. In mid-April, students will be sent a WebSMART registration appointment email which will contain their individual appointment date. Continuing students may register and pay fees using WebSMART on or after their appointment date. All students who have an outstanding balance from any prior semester will not be able to register for classes until all fees are paid.

Application Process for NEW and FORMER Students

All students who have not attended any of the last three semesters, including summer session, must submit an Application for Admission for the Fall 2013 term. Submit an Application for Admission at collegeofsanmateo.edu/apply. After being admitted, and completing matriculation requirements, if applicable, new and former students may register and pay fees using WebSMART. See Fall 2013 Important Dates on page 2.

College Connection Concurrent Enrollment Program

The High School College Connection Concurrent Enrollment Program is a special program designed to provide current 9th-12th graders the opportunity to get an "early start" on their college experience and earn college credit. Enrollment fees are free to California residents who enroll in less than 11 units.

International Education

College of San Mateo welcomes international students, who enrich the academic, cultural, and social life of the campus by bringing a diversity of ideas and multicultural perspectives to the classroom and by providing opportunities beyond the classroom for all CSM students to engage in conversations and activities that create a broader understanding of the global community in which we all live.

College of San Mateo's International Student Center provides extensive support services for international students including an efficient admissions process, assistance with financial aid, a welcoming on-campus orientation, and ongoing counseling and advising throughout the students' enrollment at the college. Dedicated, student-centered professors, small class size, and state-of-the-art facilities create a robust instructional environment in which students grow intellectually and prepare for transfer to a four-year institution or for further training in a career. For information, contact Patricia Kwok at kwokp@ smccd.edu or (650) 574-6525.

Distance Education

College of San Mateo is committed to meeting the evolving needs and expectations of its students and community through the expansion of alternative means of delivering instructional and student support services.

Distance education courses consist of online and hybrid courses. Online courses are conducted through a class website, and there are no mandatory campus meetings. Hybrid courses are conducted mostly online but do have at least one meeting on campus. Most CSM distance education courses are applicable toward associate degree credit, and many satisfy transfer course requirements. Additionally, students enrolled in distance education courses have the same access to financial aid as those enrolled in on-campus courses.

Distance education courses may not be right for all students. They give students greater freedom of scheduling, but they also require more self-discipline than on-campus courses. How well distance education courses fit into your educational and career goals depends on many factors. It is important for first-time distance education students to review the information available on the distance education website at collegeofsanmateo.edu/distanceeducation. For those students who are able to create the right environment, have the right study habits, and understand the technical and academic requirements, CSM's Distance Education courses can be as effective as on-campus courses in terms of student learning.

The Distance Education Resource Center is available to assist students and answer questions in order to ensure College of San Mateo students have a successful distance learning experience. For more information, please visit the Distance Education website at collegeofsanmateo. edu/distanceeducation or call (650) 524-6933.

Priority Enrollment Program (PEP)

For Graduating High School Seniors and Other New or Returning Students College of San Mateo offers a special enrollment program that provides priority access to matriculation services and enrollment for students who plan to enter the College in Fall 2013. More information about PEP can be found at collegeofsanmateo.edu/pep.

Transfer Students

Students who have completed lower division coursework at other colleges and universities and wish to apply that credit to the completion of a College of San Mateo certificate, associate degree, or to a California State University General Education Certification, or to an IGETC Certification should have their transcripts officially evaluated after applying for admission at collegeofsanmateo.edu/apply. For more information, review the Transcript Evaluation Service information at smccd.edu/transeval.

Dismissed Students

Students on dismissal status within the San Mateo County Community College District must go through a process to request reinstatement and permission to enroll in classes. The first step of this process at College of San Mateo is to attend a Reinstatement Workshop. To schedule a reservation for a workshop go to the Counseling Office in Building 10, Third Floor, Room 340. Students must complete the workshop and the reinstatement process prior to the registration deadline date for the term for which they request enrollment.

Students who were dismissed and who have NOT been in attendance at College of San Mateo, Cañada, or Skyline College since Fall 2012 must complete an Application for Admission prior to attending the Reinstatement Workshop.

Educational Goals at CSM

View the College Catalog and the College website, collegeofsanmateo. edu, for more information about goals and opportunities at College of San Mateo.

University Transfer Program

Complete your freshman and sophomore years of university work at College of San Mateo and transfer as a junior to a baccalaureate level college or university. College of San Mateo can help you plan an educational program to prepare you to transfer to the University of California, California State University or private college or university to earn a bachelor's degree. Assistance from Counseling Services and Transfer Services can ensure a smooth transition to the transfer institution of your choice. With planning, it is possible to concurrently complete an associate degree as you complete coursework to facilitate university transfer. In many cases, students planning to transfer may want to pursue an Associate Degree for Transfer (AA-T/AS-T). See information below.

Associate Degrees for Transfer (AA/AS-T) Benefit Students Intending to Transfer to CSU

California community colleges, as a result of SB 1440, offer associate degrees designed to support transfer to the California State University system. Students who complete an AA-T or AS-T secure priority admission to the California State University system. A list of associate degrees for transfer (AA-T/AS-T) is located in the CSM Catalog and on the Transfer Services website. For more information about SB 1440 and advantages to completing an AA-T or AS-T go to www.sb1440.org.

Associate in Arts and Associate in Science Degree Programs

At College of San Mateo you can select from over 65 associate degree majors, or choose to complete multiple degrees to enhance career and job opportunities or for personal enrichment. Graduation from College of San Mateo with the associate in arts or science degree is based upon the completion of 60 units of lower-division college-level work, which includes major, basic competency, and general education requirements. For a complete list of associate degree majors and courses required to satisfy each major refer to the CSM Catalog.

Certificate Programs

You can earn a certificate in achievement or a certificate of specialization in over 70 areas. Certificate programs are designed to prepare you for employment. All certificate programs are carefully developed by advisory committees composed of college staff and selected representatives from the business and industrial communities. Typically certificates require 12–40 units of coursework and can be completed in one semester or over several semesters. Certificates are awarded upon successful completion of requirements listed in the CSM Catalog.

Gainful Employment Disclosure Information

Final regulations published in the Federal Register on October 29, 2010, [75 FR 66665 and FR 66832], by the U.S. Department of Education, require all institutions that participate in the student financial assistance programs authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, to report certain information about students who enrolled in Title IV - eligible educational programs that lead to gainful employment in a recognized occupation. College of San Mateo's report on educational programs leading to gainful employment is available at collegeofsanmateo.edu/degrees.

Multiple Educational Goals

At College of San Mateo you are free to pursue your educational interests for personal and career growth and development. This may mean that you want to complete certificates, associate degrees, and transfer. You are not limited to selecting one educational goal.* *Students participating in the some special programs (such as the CSM Financial Aid program) are required to declare one primary educational goal.

Updating Job Skills

You may find classes and programs that appeal to you for updating your job skills or advancement in your career.

Program Planning and Enrollment Management

Students enrolling at College of San Mateo should plan a program of study that will meet their educational and career goals. Attend the College Orientation and Course Selection Workshop to acquire information about program planning and how to achieve educational goals. All students who attend a workshop have access to counseling services and should consult with a counselor early in the educational process for academic planning assistance. Students often have multiple goals and plan to complete a college certificate, an associate degree, and/or transfer to a university to complete a baccalaureate degree.

If in the course of enrollment at College of San Mateo, students find it advisable to change their program of study or educational goal, they may do so. These changes should be discussed with a counselor and students should be aware that any changes may result in extending the time necessary to fulfill the certificate or degree or transfer requirements. Ultimately, students maintain full responsibility for planning their educational programs and for their enrollment management.

Students are responsible for maintaining current and accurate information in their WebSMART accounts and updating personal contact information and educational goal information, managing registration and enrollment, retrieving grades and placement test results, and monitoring academic standing.

LEARNING COMMUNITIES

PUENTE PROJECT

The Puente Project is a transfer support program with English, counseling and mentoring components. This learning community focuses on Latino literature and experiences and spans two semesters. In fall, students eligible for ENGL 838 or 848 register for ENGL 838 and CRER 128. In Spring, students continue with ENGL 100/102 and CRER 129. Students are required to enroll in the English and career classes concurrently each semester as well as attend out of class field trips and activities. Interested students must first attend a Puente Project Orientation for registration access. For more information and orientation dates, contact Jon Kitamura (kitamuraj@smccd.edu) or Lorena Gonzalez (gonzalezl@ smccd.edu). ## FEES & REFUNDS

Fees

Fees are due and payable at the time of registration. Students will not be able to register for classes if they have any outstanding balance. On Wednesday, July 31, students who have any outstanding fee balances for Fall 2013 will be dropped at midnight for non-payment of fees. Beginning Thursday, August 1, two weeks prior to the start of the fall semester, students will be dropped at midnight the day following their registration for non-payment of outstanding fees. For more important information, visit collegeofsanmateo.edu/fees.

Student enrollment fees are set by California's legislature and governor and are subject to change at any time. It is possible that your fees may be adjusted at a future date. All student records are automatically held until all outstanding debts to the District colleges have been cleared. Unpaid bills may be sent to collections.

Students who are classified as California residents as defined in the California Education Code will be charged an enrollment fee, a health services fee and a student representation fee. An optional student body fee also will be assessed. In accordance with California law, the enrollment fees may be waived for California residents who demonstrate financial need and qualify for a Board of Governors Enrollment Fee Waiver (BOGW). Contact the College Financial Aid Office for additional information.

Students who are classified as nonresidents will be charged a tuition fee in addition to the enrollment fee, health services fee and student representation fee. International Students (F-1 Visa) are subject to a health insurance requirement and are charged tuition and capital outlay fees in addition to enrollment fees. Contact the International Student Center for details.

The student representation fee was established by student election to support student advocacy before local, state and federal offices and agencies.

In addition, students will be required to purchase textbooks and miscellaneous supplies, as well as tools and technical supplies for certain programs. In some courses students will also be required to pay a non-refundable instructional materials charge.

Fees are subject to change at any time by action of the State Legislature, Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, or the District Board of Trustees.

If you need assistance in paying your fees, you are encouraged to:

- Enroll in an inexpensive payment plan via WebSMART
- Apply for financial aid (www.fafsa.gov) at least five business days prior to registering for your classes
- Complete the Board of Governors Fee Waiver via WebSMART

If you still need financial asisstance after exhausting all options listed above, please contact the Vice President of Student Services at csmvpss@smccd.edu.

AB 540 Students

Under Assembly Bill 540 (AB540), you may be exempt from paying nonresident tuition. Students who have attended a California high school for three years AND received a California high school diploma or its equivalent, such as a GED or passed the high school proficiency exam, are exempt from paying non-resident tuition. See page 4 for more information.

Credit and Refund Policy

Enrollment Fee, Nonresident Tuition Fee, Health Services Fee and Parking Fee

Students who officially withdraw from all courses, or reduce their program prior to the first class meeting or by the course deadline date will receive credit toward future fees for the full amount of all fees paid for those classes. To view deadline date, check course in WebSMART. A $10 processing fee (plus an additional $50 processing fee for nonresident tuition) will be retained by the College if a refund is issued to a student withdrawing from all classes. For all courses dropped after the deadline, these fees are not refundable unless an action of the College (e.g., class cancellation) prevents a student from attending class. Parking permit fees are not refundable.

Student Body Fee and Student Representation Fee

Students enrolling during the normal registration period in semester-long classes may request a waiver or a refund of the Student Body Fee and/or the Student Representation Fee through the last day to drop semester-long classes (see Important Dates on page 2). Students enrolling after the end of this deadline may request a waiver or a refund of these fees within one (1) week of completing registration. Students enrolled only in short courses have until the first class session to request a waiver or refund of these fees. Students requesting a waiver or a refund of the Student Body Fee and/or the Student Representation Fee must do so in-person at the Center for Student Life and Leadership Development in Building 17, Room 112.

Variable Unit Courses

No enrollment fee or nonresident tuition refund or credit will be available to students enrolled in variable unit courses who earn fewer units of credit than the number for which they originally registered. Students earning additional units will be charged accordingly.

Important:

- 1. Credit balances remain on student accounts for a maximum of five (5) years.
- 2. A student may either choose to maintain a credit balance on account or contact the Business Office (Building 10, Room 360, 574-6412) to arrange for a refund.
- 3. Refunds are NOT issued automatically and are subject to a $10 processing fee if the student withdraws from all classes. Refunds of nonresident tuition are subject to an additional $50 processing fee.
- 4. Fees paid by personal check require 30 days for bank clearance before refunds can be processed.
- 5. To be eligible for a credit or refund, a student must officially withdraw from a course within the stated deadline. To view deadline date, check course in WebSMART. A withdrawal initiated by an instructor may NOT result in a credit or refund.
- 6. Fees will be credited or refunded without a processing charge if an action of the College (e.g., class cancellation) prevents a student from attending.
- 7. Student records, including transcripts, are withheld until all debts to the District colleges have been cleared.

CSM Firefighters (continued from outer front cover)

fire districts could offer. Having a locally based fire academy at CSM not only saves local departments the expense of training, but more importantly, the college is turning out a pool of highly qualified and well-trained graduates for local departments to hire.

Don Ciucci, retired Daly City deputy fire chief and CSM instructor, explains the program's approach in preparing highly trained candidates for the fire service:

CSM's Fire Technology Program is playing a critical role by addressing the everchanging types of emergency incidents that public safety education must prepare our students to recognize and mitigate. New challenges, including tactics and strategies for the response to "weapons of mass destruction incidents," along with developing an understanding for our students to safely approach today's potentially toxic chemical environments, goes far beyond what was once considered basic training. CSM's program is constantly evolving to provide the community with well-prepared individuals who have been taught the latest and most effective fire-ground and medical emergency skills, in addition to the initial competencies for handling all types of emergencies. Finally, when an incident dictates, they are instructed to improvise and adapt to ever-changing emergency conditions by applying the broad training experiences that they have learned in the Fire Technology Program.

Students in the program are taught by instructors who are experienced firefighters, both currently employed in the County and those who have retired from local fire agencies. They bring a breadth of experience and perspectives to the program. Vince Nannini, a graduate of the program and currently a fire captain with Woodside Fire Protection District, speaks about the quality of instruction he received at CSM, "I believe that when you have instructors working in the field in which they teach, students receive instruction that is second to none. From the instructors, students also see the commitment and dedication that is needed for this profession." Nannini, who had been a restaurant chef, always wanted to be a firefighter. At age 39 he was hired as a firefighter, and says of his new career, "It's the greatest job, ever!"

phase—an examination process which can also be a rigorous exercise in itself. Students need to pass a written exam, Candidate Physical Ability Test, oral board interview, chief's oral interview, medical exam, psychological and background checks-a process that takes approximately 3-4 months. As Baird says, "As instructors, we make it very clear to students that becoming firefighters is a major commitment."

Students who complete CSM's program are very successful in getting hired, and many find jobs in the local community. While the process to get hired by Bay Area departments is very competitive, the prospects for those interested in fire service continues to look positive. Keith Marshall says, "At this time the Bay Area is experiencing an increase in hiring by many agencies and there are several hundred positions that are projected to come available in the next five years."

In addition to training prospective fire service personnel, CSM's program sponsors a Fire Academy, providing in-service training for those who are already hired as firefighter recruits. With budget constraints, departments don't have the financial resources to offer training; CSM's in-service Fire Academy allows for departments countywide to send firefighters to training classes which are jointly funded by CSM and taught by CSM instructors as well as fire personnel from the agencies. According to Marshall, "This partnership allows for the training to be standardized for all firefighters within the County. No matter what agencies recruits are from, they all receive the same basic training. We are proud of the fact that approximately 90 percent of current firefighters in departments throughout San Mateo County have received training from CSM."

Christy Baird, a 16-year veteran firefighter with the Palo Alto Fire Department is also a graduate of CSM's Fire Technology Program and currently teaches in the program. She says that classroom instruction is supported by a good deal of hands-on exercises. "For example our EMT program will read about vehicle extrication and then go outside and learn how to remove and package a patient for transport to the hospital. In addition, at CSM, we have a fire house that is totally equipped with firefighting equipment and tools that students work with on a weekly basis." The program also has fire engines and rigs that have been donated by departments throughout the County; this apparatus provides opportunities for students to perform actual firefighting skills they will use as professionals."

In Baird's department, which has a staff of 100 firefighters, twelve are graduates of CSM's program. "I am very proud of our fire technology program and I am proud to see our students working in the field and the important role they play in the community." says Baird.

For students to be eligible to receive the State Fire Certificate for Firefighter 1, a condition for hiring, they need to satisfy several requirements: successfully complete the core classes defined by the State which lead to an associate in science degree; take the 12-unit Firefighter 1 Academy curriculum; serve as a volunteer for one year with a fire agency; and complete the 10-unit EMT certification, a very demanding program, but one that has a very high success rate among CSM students who pass the national test. Once students have completed these requirements, they are ready to begin the next

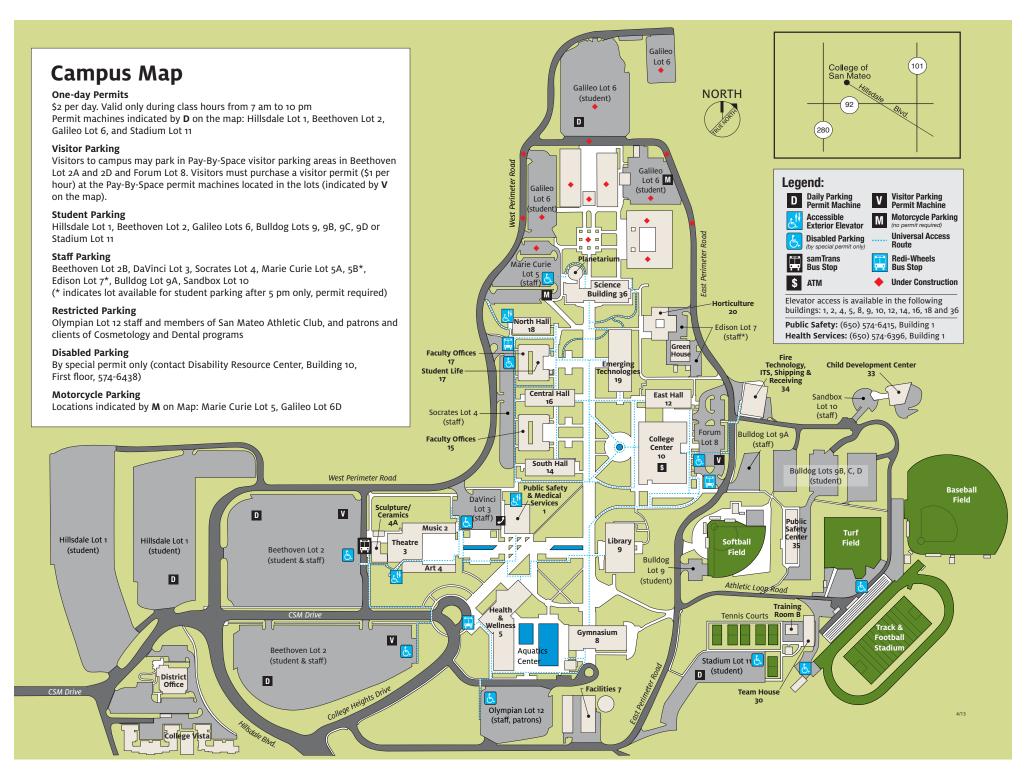

Each student who completes three honors projects (one each semester) and meets all of the Projects' academic and extracurricular criteria will be recognized as an "Honor Scholar," a designation noted on the student's transcript. Honors recognition can provide students with a competitive edge in applying for scholarships and admission to universities. As Laderman states, "These students are very impressive and serious about college. Most have set their sights on attending outstanding universities to transfer to and for graduate school."
