

Writing Center Fall 2015

Grammar & Editing Workshop Schedule

(for Multilingual Students)

These workshops are specifically designed for students who are non-native speakers/writers of English in English courses or level 3 ESL (ESL 827) or higher. You may attend a Grammar & Editing Workshop if you are:

- a student in ESL 400, ESL 907 or 908; OR
- a non-native speaker/writer of English in English 828, 838, 848, 850, 100, 105, 165 or 110.

Sign up in person in 18-104 (the Writing Center) for workshops that interest you. Each workshop includes the explanation of a specific grammar point, exercises, and editing practice. To attend, sign into the computer in 18-104 (and for ESL 907/908 or ENG 850 students, bring your folder) before coming to the classroom. Students who attend an hour or more of the workshop and participate actively in the workshops will receive an instructor signature.

Learning Center Fall 2015

Grammar & Editing Workshop Schedule

(for Multilingual Students)

All students are welcome, but these workshops are specifically designed to address errors typical of multilingual students of a high-intermediate grammar level or higher. This includes bilinguals and non-native speakers/writers of English who are able to write multiple paragraphs or essays but need help correcting grammar errors in their writing.

Sign up in person at the Learning Center front desk for workshops that interest you. Each workshop includes the explanation of a specific grammar point, exercises, and editing practice. To attend, sign into the computer at the Learning Center front desk before coming to the classroom. Writing students who attend an hour or more of the workshop and participate actively in the workshops may be eligible for TBA (lab) credit; please ask your classroom instructor for details.
