Final Recommendation from Transitions Group April 2015

The Transitions Group investigated a student’s experience from 2nd semester senior year in high school to Day 1 at the community college. The Group’s goal was to brainstorm ways to improve that transition, either improving those projects which already exist or suggesting new ones.

Process:
The Transitions Group met every other week for 90 minutes through mid-April, with a minimum of 8-10 members attending. During those meetings, the Group identified projects of interest. They were discussed, and some were eliminated and some were retained to forward to CSM administration for consideration for implementation.

All the ideas the Group considered that were of importance are listed below, and, to facilitate decision-making, we have identified the top 2-4 priorities in each area, as they were voted on by Group members. In addition, we have submitted the other projects of interest.

The outcomes of this process are outlined below.

Complete minutes of each meeting are available here or at http://bit.ly/1Hp5IS1

Definitions:
- Immediate: Single or few decision-makers. No major policy changes, no new full-time hires
- Moderate: Some training, some additional funding, interdisciplinary collaboration may be necessary
- Complex: More staff hired, more training for current staff, increased funding, more coordination might be 2+ years to implement, policy changes might need to occur.

Immediate -- 2015

| Streamline community college orientation        | • Complete more activities in one ‘fell swoop’, less ‘talking at’ students, and shorter orientation.
  • Provide only enough information needed to move students from one step to another (segmented program).
  • Look at different models (Los Angeles Trade Tech?)
  • Does the community college frontload too much information that is not necessary for the first year/to enroll?
  • Should there be a mid-semester check-in, via counselors?
| “Late”, post-PEP registers’ handbook/bookmark    | • Create a handout/bookmark of matriculation steps for any student registering after PEP. All the focus went into PEP and for those registering later, their introduction isn’t as concise and smooth.
  • We also discussed those students who are registering out of sequence (IE: Spring) and how they need a registration that is also smooth and concise.
| Outreach around financial aid                   | • Financial aid department needs to go out to the community and make themselves more visible. |

| Make enrollment process/orientation more interactive. | • New registrants should interact with enrolled CSM students and clubs as part of orientation.
• Increase incentives for arriving to PEP (to counteract ‘no shows’) |
| Expand “Summer Bridge” or “Spring Bridge” | • Identify students with C average or lower, or through recommendations from high school counselors, and consider requiring or recommending participation in Summer Bridge or Spring Bridge. |
| Transport high schools students as a cohort to the community college. | • Transport high school students to the community college to engage in the enrollment process as a cohort. Consider having the bus paid for by the college, or share the bus cost. |
| Encourage high school students to take college classes at the college. | • Encourage high school students to take classes at the college campus in order to become more familiar with it. |
