Student Life

Office Services

The Center for Student Life & Leadership Development provides services such as:

Student Activities Event Planning

The Coordinator of Student Activities is available to assist campus organizations in the development, planning, and approval of campus programs and events. College policy questions, facilities reservations, security planning, audio/visual requests, insurance requirements, health and safety reviews, risk management planning, publicity, and other considerations for special events are coordinated through the Center for Student Life.

Housing Assistance

Dormitories and other types of college-sponsored housing are not offered by College of San Mateo. However, the Center for Student Life maintains up-to-date listings of housing available in the community. The majority of listings are in private homes, but apartments and shared houses are also sometimes available. More information about housing is available in our site's Housing section.

Student Government and Club Information

Information concerning any aspect of student government, student activities, or clubs may be obtained in the Center for Student Life. The Center for Student Life also provides student groups with duplicating, publicity, and clerical services. More information about student government is available in the ASCSM section of this site. More information about clubs and organizations is available in the Clubs section of this site.

Referral Services

The Center for Student Life maintains current referral listings of services available through College and community agencies. We can assist students through referrals to the campus Health Center, Psychological Services, Tutorial Center, Child Development Center, and community agencies for such services as legal assistance, family planning, and women's services.

Transportation Information

Public transit information, including bus and train schedules, maps, and general transportation assistance are available through the Center for Student Life. Additional information regarding transit services to and from CSM are also available online.

Campus Posting & Time, Place and Manner Information

All signs, flyers, or similar materials must follow campus regulations regarding campus posting. Presentation of information must follow all policies regarding time, place and manner. Copies of these regulations are available in the Center for Student Life and online.

On-Campus Vending/Tabling

Opportunities to vend and table on campus are available through the Center for Student Life.
