Spring 2025 Update: Academic & Career Communities

ACC Team:

Allie Fasth, Director of Pathways & Promise
Alex Urbina, ACC Counselor

The purpose:

Academic & Career Communities

To create an equity-minded, student centered experience that provides students with connections and resources to identify their educational goals and persist through to completion. Specifically supporting students who are not yet connected to programs or services on campus

Goals:

1. Higher retention rates for students.
2. Increased student awareness and utilization of academic and career resources.
3. Enhanced academic performance and career readiness among students.
4. Strengthened campus community relationships through partnerships and collaborative events.

Spring 2025 Priorities: Focus on Building Community

Academic & Career Communities

1

DIRECT STUDENT SUPPORT:

- To connect 86I pre-identified students (not connected on campus, first-time)
- ACC Pop Ups
- Academic and Career Counseling
- Canvas Communities

2

CAMPUS CONNECTIONS:

- Exploring revisions to the College I Curriculum
- the Interdisciplinary Associate Degree revisions
- building partnership with OER & ZTC team
- ACC Faculty & Staff Mixers
- March 5th Building Connections Meet & Greet (you're invited!)
