DESCRIPTION

This is an MCCDC event for Black History Month.

Students will be given the opportunity to express their experiences, thoughts, and feelings in the medium of zines. Whether through art, writing poetry, collaging, or other means, we want students to show their creativity and add to the sense of community during Black History Month.

The event is on February 27th from 12:30 pm -2:10 pm for a maximum of 35 students and will be hosted in the Makers Space in the Library.

The people who will be involved in helping to facilitate the event are Active Minds and Writes Project. They will provide support in the actual event, outreach, and other inputs.
