The Associated Students of College of San Mateo

Resolution Establishing Pilot Program for the Spring 2023 Semester to Provide Compensation to Students Serving on Participatory Governance Committees

WHEREAS, students fulfill a vital role by participating in the governance process at the College and District level; and

WHEREAS, the California Education Code, Title V, and SMCCCD Board Policy both mandate and encourage the inclusion of students in the governance processes of the College and District; and

WHEREAS, students often must make the choice between working and serving on participatory governance committees while receiving no compensation; and

WHEREAS, faculty, staff, and administrators receive compensation for the time spent on participatory governance committees as part of their regular job duties; and

WHEREAS, the District and Foundation have established a pilot program for the Spring 2023 semester that compensates students serving on participatory governance committees $100.00 per meeting;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Associated Students of CSM does endorse and adopt the student compensation pilot program for any student serving on a participatory governance committee, including hiring committees, for the Spring 2023 semester.

REGULARLY PASSED AND ADOPTED this 17th day of April 2023 by the Student Senate of the Associated Students of College of San Mateo.
