REPORTS

President Vasquez reported that it would be amazing if we could gather volunteers for Spring Fling to help Programming Board host their big finale event of the year. Candidate Meet and Greet event would be on Wednesday, during the Spring Fling. Also- next week is the last Senate Meeting!

Vice President Rysbekova reported the same as President Vasquez and added her well wishes to everyone for their amazing transfer decisions!

Vice Chair Llanell reported that he is still planning the ICC Reception party, and he has put in the funding request.

Student Trustee Johnson reported that the district is looking for student representatives for a committee to sit on. This committee meets 4 times per year between 2 pm and 4 pm, and they would like a student that is active on campus (like someone from ASCSM). She also congratulated everyone on their university decisions!

Senator Chang reported that he and another peer worked on making a new CSM club website (csmclubs.com) and would welcome feedback and suggestions! The website is planned to be launched starting fall 2025.

Mr. Guiriba, vice president of student services, reported that:

- Good to be back
- The district is hosting the 25-year service awards today
- Third annual Campus Life and Leadership Awards on Thursday, May 1
- World Gala will take place this Friday, May 2
- May - lotta new celebrations!
- Wrapping up for commencement
- Congrats on those who got into the universities!

Mr. Schaefer, Student Life and Leadership Manager, reported that:

- He is excited to hear about what colleges everyone is transferring to.
- Senators Nguy, Situ and the entire group that went to Washington DC did an amazing job representing ASCSM and CSM. The group left some big shoes to fill for next year's Advocacy Board.
- The current Senate has access to the ASCSM Office in Building 17 until the end of finals.
- Please be sure to support the Programming Board at their Spring Fling event on Wednesday.

Mr. Hamadeh, Student Life and Leadership Assistant, reported that:

- Ballot emails went out this morning and everyone who is eligible to vote should have received one by now. Folks should check their my.smccd.edu email for the message. If someone has not received their ballot, please have them contact Mr. Hamadeh. Over 100 votes have already been cast. Mr. Hamadeh reminded everyone to be mindful of the areas off-limits to campaigning in Building 17.
- Tuesday, April 29, is the final ICC meeting of the semester.
- The Center for Student Life will begin accepting paperwork for the Fall 2025 semester on May 1.
- Any pending reimbursements must be submitted by Thursday, May 15.

WASHINGTON DC TRIP REPORT - ADVOCACY BOARD

Senator Nguyen said that this was the first time in Washington, DC, for a lot of the members of the Advocacy Board. She said that the group held several visits with legislators and had time to see many of the sites around Washington. Mr. Nguyen said that the group appreciated Mr. Schaefer's insights. Senator Nguyen recognized the efforts of Senator Situ for arranging many of the visits. She also thanked Mr. Schaefer for coordinating the logistics of the visit.

Senator Magidin echoed Senator Nguyen's statement.

Senator Situ said she appreciated the opportunity to start building relationships between CSM and elected leaders. The group talked about many issues, including expanding programs like Middle College. Senator Situ also recognized Mr. Schaefer for making the trip fun and Senator Nguyen for her leadership.

President Vasquez said that he was glad the group represented the students at CSM. He said it is important that there is representation at the national level as well as the local level. Mr. Vasquez recognized the work of the Advocacy Board and the efforts of Senators Nguyen and Situ in organizing the trip and scheduling visits. He also thanked Mr. Schaefer for his work to make this trip happen.

END OF THE YEAR PROGRESS REPORT

Vice President Rysbekova said the group had discussed collecting feedback from current members of the Senate that can be passed along to the newly elected officers and senators. Mr. Hamadeh suggested putting together a short survey that members can complete. The survey would have four questions: What did you learn? What did you wish you knew coming into ASCSM? What advice would you give someone getting started in ASCSM? If you served on a participatory governance committee, what did the committee discuss this year? Mr. Hamadeh said he would put together a draft of the survey and share it with President Vasquez and Vice President Rysbekova.
