ANNOUNCEMENTS AND HEARINGS OF THE PUBLIC

Paulina Tymchenkov reported from the Sustainability Committee that

- They have received funding that would last them two more years, and one of their aims with that money is to increase the number of EV charging ports on campus
- They plan on possibly hiring 4 student assistants who could organize a bunch of events to promote and advertise the department

REPORTS

President Nguyen mentioned that the AAPILD week events, and the club fair events went pretty well. He also mentioned the Mid-Autumn festival is this Wednesday and hoped the members could stop by and have fun.

Vice President Ong requested the members to support and aid Equity Affairs in organizing the Mid-Autumn event.

Finance Director Cho reminded the Senate that they are on a tight budget on the College Assistance allotment and to be mindful of it when approving funding requests.

Secretary Sharma asked the members to be careful while eating in the Senate Office because of the ant infestation and reminded Senators Dominguez and Dababo to clean up the office.

Senator Hong reminded the Senate that the Mid-Autumn event is on Wednesday, 11am - 1pm. Set up and clean-up is an hour before and after the event.

Senator Eijiri reported that the Open Education initiative would meet Mondays 11:10am-12pm in 17-101.

Alex Guiriba, VPSS, reported that:

- The Club Fair and Resource fair events went amazingly - kudos to the group for that
  - We had a visit from State Chancellor, and she was super impressed with the efforts teh college had put in in the events and their diversity programs - she called CSM a "model college"
- He really appreciates the collaboration
- Funding cuts to the many college programs can affect so many students :(
- CSM will be participating in the Coastside Pumpkin festival
  - Let him know through the student life office

Mr. Schaefer, Student Life and Leadership Manager:

- Mentioned that the club fair was fantastic
- Hoped that the members show up and help for the Mid-Autumn Festival
