- I. Welcome, Alex/Micaela/Tabitha (1 min)
- II. Group share out, Tabitha (5 min)
 - a. Any key takeaways you would like to share before we go into the questions?
- III. Racist Policy doesn't allow everyone to be equal individuals. How would your individuality be different if you were a different race? (10 min)
- IV. Racism was born as a form of power. It's a currency that benefits those who control it. What's one way in which racist power has hurt or benefited you? (5 min)
- V. Racist ideas are widely accepted and reflected in thoughts and actions, yet many people are unaware of it. What are three examples of racist ideas you've encountered in the past year and where do you think these ideas came from? (10 min)
- VI. Think Pair Share: Think about three times this week where you did something to promote anti-racism. Share with your table partner. (5 min)
- VII. Intra-racial discrimination has existed for as long as racism. Can you name and describe ways in which your race is divided into different racial categories? (5 min)
- VIII. Think Pair Share: Certain groups are over or underrepresented in the justice system. Think about the ways in which the justice system has affected your community at the level of race. Share with your table partner. (5 min)
- IX. Communities and groups can get a bad reputation without the positive elements included. Can you describe elements of your own community that get an undeserved reputation? (5 min)
- X. Rap music gets criticized for its content but rarely for its artistic merit. What art form do you enjoy that is misunderstood or underappreciated by the culture at large? (5 min)
- XI. Future Book Club Meetings
