

Highlights

- CSM welcomed over a thousand new, returning, and prospective students to campus for our second annual Back to School Block Party, building community and connecting attendees with resources.

- CSM's Student Veterans of America chapter participated in this year's national conference in Nashville, TN, fostering collaboration and sharing best practices.

- CSM Career Services hosted the "Fall in Love with a Career" job, volunteer, and internship fair, bringing employers across the county to our campus to connect with students and share exciting opportunities.

Bulldogs Win Back-to-Back NorCal Championships

CSM's Football team had an outstanding Fall 2024 Semester, achieving success on and off the field. Not only did they clinch the Nor Cal Championship, but they also excelled in the classroom with an impressive average team GPA of 3.42. An astonishing 94 players achieved GPAs of 3.0 or higher, marking an incredible 42 consecutive semesters with an average team GPA above 3.0. In the mid-year transfer window, 11 Bulldogs have earned Division-1 commitments, allowing them to continue their academic and athletic careers when they graduate from CSM.

On the field, the CSM football program continued its historic run, securing the Northern California Championship for the second year in a row and being named the Bay Six Conference Champions. Read the Bleed Blue Quarterly CSM Football Newsletter for additional details about our incredible student-athletes.
