

Highlights

CSM's Wellness Center hosted its biannual Health Fair, bringing nearly 40 community partners to campus to share wellness-related resources with students and employees.

CSM's Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI) Title V grant team hosted a panel of guest speakers at an HSI Alliance event to celebrate our HSI status as part of Black Student Success Week.

HSI + BLACK STUDENT SUCCESS

CSM's students hosted a Black Arts Festival, put on an inter-faith perspectives workshop, attended a social justice education resource workshop, and participated in zine workshops as part of a Queer Students of Color Conference. See highlights in this video.

Ethnic Studies Film Series 2024

Held April 15 through 17, this CSM-hosted event featured films, a keynote speech, and panel discussions on climate change and food justice. Highlights included the films Gather, showcasing Native American food sovereignty efforts, and Los Guardianes del Maíz, exploring the story of native corn in Mexico. Art exhibits complemented the screenings. This free event sparked meaningful conversations along with community engagement on our campus.
