

Open Education Week

CSM marked OE Week by highlighting faculty leadership in open educational resource and zero-cost learning, advancing equitable access to course materials, and helping reduce financial barriers for students. View OER/ZTC video here.

Lunar New Year Celebration

CSM's International Education Program welcomed the Year of the Horse with a Lunar New Year celebration that brought students together for cultural exchange, festive activities, and a joyful campus gathering honoring tradition and community.

Holi Celebration

Associated Students of College of San Mateo hosted a vibrant Holi celebration, inviting students to welcome spring through color, connection, and community while learning about the cultural significance of this joyful Hindu festival.

Day of Science @ CSM

Hosted by CSM's MESA (Math, Engineering & Science Achievement) program in partnership with Stanford CCOP, Day of Science brought more than 300 students, faculty, and staff to campus for a large-scale celebration of STEM exploration, mentorship, research, and community connection.

Upcoming Beach Volleyball Games

CSM vs. West Valley & Cabrillo
Friday, April 3, 10 am & Noon

CSM vs. Fresno
Friday, April 10, 10 am

Join us in Cupertino at De Anza College to cheer on our Bulldogs!

View All Upcoming Events

Stanford University Honors Partnership with CSM

College of San Mateo's MESA program and STEM priorities were honored by Stanford University with its Community Partnership Award, recognizing CSM's impactful collaboration with the Stanford Community College Outreach Program and its leadership in expanding STEM access, research exposure, and transfer pathways for community college students. CSM President Dr. Manuel Alejandro Pérez, MESA Director Olivia Viveros, and Chemistry Professor Catherine Ciesla represented the college at the March 3 award ceremony.

Read More Here