Celebrating CSM's Class of 2026

On Friday, May 22, CSM celebrated its 104th Commencement Ceremony, honoring more than 400 graduates who crossed the stage at the Plaza of the Sun, CSM's newly activated outdoor amphitheater overlooking the San Francisco Bay. This year, CSM awarded 1,885 associate degrees and certificates to 1,260 graduates, including 592 graduates with honors, 584 first-generation graduates, 359 Promise Scholar graduates, 53 veteran graduates, 90 international student graduates, and seven foster youth graduates. The youngest graduate was 17, and the oldest was 78. Read more about the Class of 2026.

2025-2026 Bulldog Athletics Wrap-Up

The 2025-2026 academic year brought more standout seasons for CSM Athletics, with spring sports leading the way. Softball advanced to the 2026 3C2A State Championship tournament semifinals after a dominant season that included a 37-1 regular-season record, the No. 1 state ranking, and an 11th Coast Conference championship in 13 seasons. Track and field, baseball, and basketball also delivered strong performances, reinforcing CSM's reputation for competitive excellence across its teams. The year also included another historic chapter for Bulldog football, which captured back-to-back 3C2A state championships and earned its third state title in four years. Read more here.
