

Umoja at-a-glance

- Supportive network of faculty, staff, and administrators who have the cultural competency to help you reach your goals
- Afro-centric curriculum
- Cohort-based learning in English, Math, and Ethnic Studies classes
- Transfer support and planning – Umoja students have transferred to universities that include UC Santa Cruz, UC Riverside, San Diego State University, San Francisco State University, CSU East Bay, San Jose State University, Palo Alto, Oregon, and Columbia
- Member of the statewide Umoja Community Education Foundation
- Dedicated academic counseling
- Retention specialist
- Access to the “Village,” a dedicated study and hang out space for learning communities
- Transfer agreements with many HBCUs after you have completed 30 transferable units
- Field trip to De Young Museum
- Trips to the statewide Umoja Conference and the northern California Umoja Symposium
- Built in connections to other Umoja students through the Umoja Club/BSU
- Black Leadership program
- Workshops for Umoja students on finance, applying for scholarships, and mental well-being

