Announcement: Event Calendar

Bev Madden reminded the council to utilize the college's online Event Calendar to inform the community about events planned for the spring semester.

Automatic External Defibrillator (AED) training

Presenter: Sharon Bartels

Sharon showed a video and demonstrated the application of an AED.

An AED is a device that analyzes the heart's electrical rhythm and is used to deliver a shock to a person suffering from sudden cardiac arrest. With an AED a person's survival rate from cardiac arrest increases by 20%. The device comes with recorded instructions and full illustrations. AEDs are used in conjunction with CPR.

Not Anymore and Title IX

Jennifer Hughes showed the council video samples of:

1) Know Your IX

Sex discrimination is prohibited in Education. The video addresses sexual harassment, gender based discrimination & sexual violence.

Access to video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1FAs9fegJsl>

2) Not Any More for Community Colleges

The video addresses sexual assault, stalking and dating violence.

Student Success & Support Program Update

Marsha Ramezane reported that there are two counselors, two evaluators and one Learning Disability specialist that have been hired.

Student Equity Plan Update

Henry Villareal reported that the Diversity in Action Group (DIAG) began to review planning and budgeting items and expects the committee will release a report in March.

Possible Student Services brochure

Council members who attended the meeting received a survey to vote on the creation of a Student Services brochure. Council members voted in favor and so Spring 2016 is marked as a possible initial publishing date. Brochure expenses will be funded by SSSP funds and the Community Relation and Marketing office will lead the project.
